Questions for D-START Defense Attorney:

Referring to the eligibility criteria on pages 4-6 of the draft D-START Pilot Prospectus, describe why your client is a good fit for D-START.

Is your client better suited for Tier I (high needs) or Tier II (low needs) of the D-START program? Please provide a brief explanation. (See pages 4-5 of the draft D-START Pilot Prospectus for a description of the Tiers).

Does your case involve “significant financial loss, harm to victims, abuse of a position of trust, or violence”? If so, provide details and an explanation about why your client would still be a good fit for the program.

What outcome are you seeking and why? (Dismissal, misdemeanor, or non-incarceration sentence). Please keep in mind that if your client has more than one prior felony, they will not be eligible for a dismissal. If you are seeking dismissal, please explain why that outcome would be particularly important or beneficial to your client.

How many prior felonies does your client have? ____ If your client has a lengthy criminal history, please provide an explanation for why they would still be a good fit for the D-START program.

Does your client have potential immigration consequences relating to this criminal case? If so, please consult with an immigration attorney and describe whether D-START would help your client avoid such consequences. If your client has no lawful status, please include specific details about how your client will make efforts to adjust their status after this case is resolved.
